Dear Alpha Kappa Psi,

I am Hadi Naseem, a freshman at Wayne State University double majoring in Finance and Technology, Information Systems, and Analytics. I am passionate about problem-solving, especially when it involves tackling areas where I have less experience, learning quickly, and striving to excel. I'm great at staying consistent in my work, connecting with others around me, and leading collaborative projects. Beyond school, I enjoy going to the mosque at least twice a week to spiritually cleanse myself, trying new things such as playing Pickleball(I would love to play anytime), and spending as much time as I can with my family. I'm eager to join Alpha Kappa Psi because I admire the fraternity's commitment to establishing young, business-minded leaders in our world today by providing opportunities to grow both professionally and personally.

One of my most impactful experiences throughout high school was serving as President of the Muslim Student Association, where I led more than 30 students and organized 10 events. I faced the pressure of having everyone look to me for guidance, and I had to persevere and prove not only to others but also to myself that I was a capable and effective leader. My time as an accounting intern at Doshi & Associates had a lasting effect on my ability to accommodate and support the people I work with. I came into a brand new office, looking at faces I'd never met before, many of whom were twice my age. I handled over 300 client documents weekly, rising to the challenge of proving my value in a room full of accomplished professionals. The effect these experiences had on me shaped me into a person who aligns with Alpha Kappa Psi's values, Brotherhood, Knowledge, Integrity, Service, and Unity.

I'm inspired by AKPsi's mission to develop ethical business leaders, and I have seen this mission in action through the brothers I met, who showed me unmatched hospitality. My sense of leadership, technical skills, and commitment to helping and supporting my peers will enable me to thrive within the fraternity. I am drawn to the sense of community and collaboration within AKPsi, and I look forward to contributing to initiatives that will strengthen the professional development of both my fellow brothers and myself.

Sincerely,

Hadi Naseem
