Dear, Alpha Kappa Psi

Akpsi provides a vast network in consulting, finance and other industries that helps build an amazing relationship with peers that share professional ambitions.

It helps you gain experience in working with committees and promotes collaboration with the fundraising and professional events.

The care that Akpsi shows is kind, they help people step outside their comfort zones helping build personal integrity and improvement .

Having spent 2 years in customer service, I have consistently exceeded sales goals by advising 10+ customers daily, helping contribute to revenue growth. This has allowed me to become well experienced in client focus building trust and making the complex info clear, receiving recognition with my ability to keep moving forward, Therefore I believe this could make me a great asset for Akpsi

Sincerely,

ESHAN UDDIN
