Dear Brothers of Alpha Kappa Psi,

With a love of finance and a fascination with how strategy translates into real-world outcomes, I began with a desire to build things, whether that meant creating business ideas or learning how markets work. The same drive led me to pursue Finance at Wayne State University's Mike Ilitch School of Business, along with a minor in Entrepreneurship and Innovation, to continue to build my ability for innovative thinking. Beyond the classroom, creativity fuels much of what I do. From sewing and making dresses to developing with AI agents, I enjoy pursuing projects that put logic and creativity to the test. My mind is always generating something new, and I approach each academic and professional endeavor with the same commitment, work ethic, and curiosity.

My goal is to embody Alpha Kappa Psi's values through my background. My experience at Fratacangeli Wealth Management, a firm managing $4B in assets, sharpened my leadership in a professional setting. This led me to explore markets and grow my interest in stocks, which inspired me to take on the role of Secretary and founding board member of the Wayne Stock Trade Association. Through my involvement, membership grew to 150 students through active outreach, demonstrating reliability and initiative. Additionally, mentoring high school students and my business as an esthetician have developed my ability to serve others with integrity. I am excited about bringing my skills and abilities to Alpha Kappa Psi to benefit its principles of Brotherhood, Knowledge, Integrity, Service, and Unity.

Alpha Kappa Psi's goal of shaping strong ethical leaders motivates me to contribute meaningfully. This professional fraternity builds students towards professional development and introduces them to meaningful networking. I look forward to using my background in finance, entrepreneurship, and leadership to help strengthen the chapter. Joining a brotherhood with such a rich history and values would be an honor. I am eager to give back through leadership and active involvement. Thank you for your consideration; I look forward to learning from and growing with the brothers of Alpha Kappa Psi.

Sincerely,

Alexandra Prevaj
